

Northfield Mountain

Recreation and Environmental Center

March 2024

Trails Open for Hiking

The trails are open for hiking. Multiple rain and wind events along with above freezing temperatures have been the weather highlights during early March.

Hikers should anticipate wet soil and muddy spots on the trails when temperatures rise above freezing.

Trails closed to horseback riding until mid-May.

